AIR HOLOCAUST IN KIANGSI AND HUPEH

Heavy Losses Of Civilian Life

CHUNGKING, Mar. 18 (Central).—Wanton attacks were again staged by Japanese warplanes on open towns in Kiangsi and Hupeh yesterday, resulting in heavy losses of civilian lives and property. One of the raiders was shot down by Chinese anti-aircraft shells at Fancheng, on the north bank of the Han River in northern Hupeh.

Kian, in central Kiangsi, suffered terribly from an attack, which was conducted by 15 Japanese bombers. More than 300 civilians, mostly women and children, were killed and maimed. Blocks of houses were gutted by fires caused by incendiary bombs. The conflagration raged for several hours before it was finally brought under control.

The Provincial Hospital and the Nurses' School were among the buildings destroyed. Many patients, doctors and nurses had burns. The Yang Min Middle School and the Confucius Temple were totally demolished. The Kiangsi Provincial Government is learned to have appropriated $10,000 for emergency relief there.

Fancheng in Hupeh, which was raided by four Japanese bombers, also suffered heavy damages. More than 300 shops and residences were reduced to ruins.

The plane which was hit by Chinese anti-aircraft shells, crashed in flames on the river bank. One of the airmen was burned to death while another, who bailed out in a parachute, was caught.

Shortly after the raid in Fancheng, Siangyang on the opposite bank was also attacked by seven enemy machines.

NO RECOGNITION BY U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 18 (Reuter).—President Roosevelt, at a press conference to-day, declared that the European situation pointed the need for revision of the Neutrality Act.

He made it clear that the United States has no intention of recognising German annexation of Czechoslovakia, and said that future diplomatic relations were under consideration.

Senator Key Pittman has announced that the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Senate will meet on March 22 to discuss changes in the Neutrality Act.

Extensive Precautions In S. Africa

LEADING MEN GIVEN KEY POSITION

JOHANNESBURG, Mar. 19 (Reuter).—Extensive precautions are being taken throughout the Union to guard the communications of vital public services. Whether the activities are connected with the European situation or the position of South-West Africa is hitherto not clear.

Three squadrons of the South African Air Force have been placed on active service with their bases at Roberts Height. All police reserves have been called up and strong guards placed in the power, radio and cable stations, petrol and oil storage depots.

Disturbances occurred yesterday among German workers at the Pretoria State steel works which resulted in military forces being drafted there from Roberts Height.

"Complete preparedness in every sphere" is the aim of the extensive precautions being taken in the Union. Leading men in South Africa, especially civilians, have been allotted key positions to ensure maximum efficiency.

11 KILLED IN AIR TRAGEDY

Plane Apparently Fell Apart

Special to the "Hongkong Daily Press"

Two officials of the Royal Dutch Airline (KLM) were among eleven persons killed when the new Boeing stratojet crashed about 30 miles south-east of Tacoma according to news received here yesterday.

The officials were Mr. P. Gullonald and Mr. G. von Raunhauer, both from Amsterdam, while the other nine were all Boeing employees in Seattle.

Eye-witnesses of the tragedy state that one of the four 1,100 h.p. Wright Cyclone engines became loose and in falling took the tail of the plane with it.

There was no explosion or burning in the air and to eye-witnesses it seemed that the plane fell apart.

LINK BETWEEN BRITAIN & RUMANIA

Rumania's Defences Manned

5 ARMY CORPS MOBILIZED

CURIOUS DENIAL IN BUCHAREST

LONDON, MARCH 19 (REUTER).—MESSAGES DESCRIBING THE MANNING OF RUMANIA'S DEFENCES WERE FEATURED IN THE PRESS LAST NIGHT.

Despite the official denial of mobilization, the foreign editor of the "Evening Standard" states that orders have been issued in Bucharest for the mobilization of five army corps.

He adds that King Carol indicated to the British Government that if Britain, France and Russia will lend him support, he can rally Poland, Bulgaria, Greece, Turkey and Yugoslavia, to stand firm with Rumania.

A CURIOUS STATEMENT

BUCHAREST, Mar. 19 (Reuter).—It is officially confirmed that "certain measures" have been taken in the past few days to guard Rumania's frontiers, but the measures are described as "normal" and it is added that no Rumanian soldiers have crossed the frontier and that no mobilization of the army has been ordered.

According to another official statement, the trade negotiations being conducted by Herr Wohltat will be finished in two days.

The talks are stated to be in pursuance of the protocol signed in November last between Germany and Rumania on the commercial relations between the two countries and it is added that the aim of the talks is agreement on the exchange of certain products.

Official Denial By Germany

"ULTIMATUM" AN INVENTION

BRITISH PRESS ATTACKED

BERLIN, MAR. 19 (REUTER).—THE ASSERTION THAT GERMANY IS SAID TO HAVE PRESENTED RUMANIA WITH AN "ULTIMATUM" IS AN INVENTION LACKING EVERY FOUNDATION," declares an official statement which was issued yesterday on the economic negotiations taking place between Germany and Rumania.

The statement goes on to say: "German-Rumanian economic negotiations are taking place in Bucharest and they are developing in normal fashion. Their subjects are the usual questions dealt with in such negotiations, such as an increase in the exchange of goods, etc."

"Everything that goes beyond this fact and reported in sections, especially in the British press, should be classified as intentional international poisoning of the atmosphere and must be regarded as an attempt to create tension."

"Thus, the assertion that Germany is said to have presented Rumania with an ultimatum is an invention lacking every foundation."

FIRE IN YENPING

YENPING, FUKIEN, Mar. 19 (Central).—Rows of houses in the busiest section of Yenping, Fukien, were gutted by fire yesterday morning. Damage is approximately $100,000.

Diplomats Meet In London

REQUEST FOR BRITISH ASSURANCES

Resistance With Full Force Of Arms Stressed

LONDON, MAR. 19 (REUTER).—IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT THE LINK BETWEEN THE KINGDOMS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND RUMANIA WERE STRESSED, AS WAS ALSO THE RUMANIAN DETERMINATION TO RESIST ANY GERMAN, OR OTHER ENCROACHMENT OF HER SOIL WITH THE FULL FORCE OF HER ARMS, during a discussion yesterday on the situation arising out of Rumania's request for British assurances in the face of the economic demands made by Germany.

The discussion took place between Lord Halifax, the British Foreign Secretary, and the French, American, Russian and German Ambassadors, states Reuter's diplomatic correspondent.

M. Titea, the Rumanian Ambassador saw Lord Halifax last night and informed him of Herr Wohltat's demarche in Bucharest.

It is significant that while information about the German move was available in London, and not against the wishes of the Rumanians, later they were vigorously denied in Bucharest, undoubtedly in the hope that Germany would be able to gracefully modify her position.

It is recalled that shortly after the Czech crisis last September, Germany presented similar demands to Hungary to the effect that Hungary should remain an agricultural country and restrict the size of her army.

NEXT MOVE?
It is indicated that Germany, having drawn Hungary into her

GERMANY TO CHANGE HER ATTITUDE

BERLIN, Mar. 19 (Reuter).—The "National Zeitung," which is closely related to Field-Marshal Goering, comments this: "The termination of the Munich Agreement is the most serious attack ever made against the friendly relations between the German and the British people. It is the product of unrestrained incitement by the British, American and French press."

"One can hardly believe that this interpretation and action of the British Government's correspondents are the wishes and intentions of the British people. But if this is the case then Britain declares herself the enemy of German existence."

"This will force Germany to change thoroughly and definitely her attitude towards Britain."

Simmerings In Memel

MEMEL, MARCH 19 (REUTER).—"WE EXPECT THE LITHUANIAN GOVERNMENT TO ALLOW MEMEL TERRITORY TO GO BACK TO GERMANY," declared M. Bertuleit, the newly elected German President of the Memel Directory, in an interview granted to Reuter.

The Lithuanian Government, continued M. Bertuleit, was well aware of its economic plight and had made continual promises which were never kept.

"For fifteen years we have had great patience and even now we contemplate no push. We carry no arms save the clean German conscience. We realize that the Lithuanian Government is not in a position to concede our wishes, particularly the economic ones, we therefore expect them to allow us to rejoin the German Reich," he concluded.

Grim Picture Of European Crisis

NEW ALIGNMENT OF POWERS

Major Conference Is Possible

LONDON, Mar. 19 (Reuter).—Rumania's approach to Britain over the virtual German economic ultimatum was presented here and what will be its sequel, occupy the major attention of the Sunday papers, whose readers are given a grim picture of the European crisis.

The report that a new alignment of the powers headed by Britain, France and the Soviet, and supported by Poland, Rumania, Greece, Turkey and Yugoslavia has been proposed, is given prominence.

According to some diplomatic correspondents, the proposals were discussed at last night's Cabinet meeting, but no decision was taken pending the completion of consultations with the Dominions.

The possibility of a conference of the four major peace powers—Britain, France, the United States and Russia—with a view to adopting a common policy also appears in many accounts.

NO SERIOUS ATTEMPT is made to lift the veil surrounding the immediate intentions of Germany and it is being recognized that the secret is closely hidden among Herr Hitler and his close advisers, who conferred in Vienna last night. But the public everywhere is reminded that the German army is marching east and that its destination is "unknown."

Poland and Hungary, now united by a common frontier through which Germany will have to march to Rumania, have already, according to the "Sunday Times" Warsaw correspondent, begun political conversations.

It is also reported elsewhere that Polish-Rumanian staff talks began to-day.

MOVE TO EAST
The "Sunday Times" diplomatic correspondent understands that the Rumanian Ambassador, M. Titea, told Lord Halifax at their meeting on Friday that 44 German Divisions—half in Czechoslovakia, and the remainder mobilizing in Germany—are preparing to move to the East and adds that

FULL POWERS BILL APPROVED FOR FRENCH PREMIER

PARIS, Mar. 19 (Reuter).—It is officially announced that the Cabinet will meet this afternoon following the Senate's approval of the full powers Bill. The Senate Finance Committee passed the full powers Bill this morning there being only two dissentient votes.

The Prime Minister, M. Daladier, said that the gravity of the foreign situation justified the powers he requested.

"I must be able to take immediately all measures, whether military, economic or financial, which the defence of our frontiers demands," he said.

M. Daladier let it be understood that should circumstances make it necessary he might ask for prolongation of the validity of the special powers when the time came.

The plenary Bill is exceeding brief. After a preamble it says that the Government is authorized until Nov. 30, 1939, to take by decrees in the Council of Ministers, measures necessary for the defence of the country. These decrees will be submitted to Parliament for ratification before Dec. 31, 1939.

MEASURES ENVISAGED
The first of the decree laws will be issued on Monday and it is believed that the measures envisaged include:

An increase in the number of military effectives to fill the gaps due to contingents required to guard Spanish refugees and the low birth-rate; An increase in armaments production; Formation of stocks and raw materials; Priority in private industry for war materials; Establishment and financing of new industries; Modification of the law for organization of the country in war-time in order to allow the Government to regulate establishments and labour; Increase in working hours in private industries working for armaments and nationalised factories.

ALL OUT STAKES

This race was a demonstration of Mr. Needa's knack for bidding his time and coming up at the right moment. #### RACE FIVE

TYTAM HANDICAP

Fifteen ponies faced the starter in this race, and the entire field got off to an excellent start. Musketeer, Mr. Wei up, led his competitors, being challenged at the Rock by Orange Boven. It managed to regain the lead, however, but on coming into the straight lost it to King Kong.

EXTRAORDINARY HANDICAPPING

The handicapping for the Hongkong Handicap (First Section), which was the sixth race on Saturday at the Valley, appears to have been somewhat odd.

In the upper portion of the race card for this race, the various handicaps are given. In a footnote, it is stated that "If Rose Elect does not accept, the following weights will apply." Bear Claw, Desert Chief and King's Warden are raised five lbs. each. Red Feather is raised only two lbs. and Moonlight View, Rob Roy and Wild Life remain the same.

The weights for the last three ponies were, therefore, unchanged whether Rose Elect started or not. Surely the correct thing to do is to state that top weight (Rose Elect) not accepting, "all weights would be raised five pounds."

Why should Rob Roy and Wild Life and Moonlight View not be penalised two to five pounds should Rose Elect not run. This handicapping is surely unique!

H.K. UNIVERSITY SPORTS

Exciting Relay Race

An exciting race for the inter-hostel relay championship between the Morrison Hall and Eliot Hall teams, John Fong emerging the hero of the day with a fine anchor lap effort for Morrison Hall when he changed a 10-yard deficit to a 5-yard lead, featured the 24th Annual Athletic Sports of Hongkong University held at Pokfulam on Saturday, which, as usual, attracted a large attendance of spectators.

The inter-hostel championship was won by Morrison Hall, Eliot Hall taking second place. The individual championship went to K. M. Au, also of Morrison Hall. Y. S. Lam, another member of the Morrison Hall team, was the runner-up.

There were no records broken, and performances, on the whole, did not compare with the standards set in previous years.

A feature of the afternoon was the half mile race open to the Colony, which was won by Pte. P. Manson, of the Royal Scots, who ran the distance in 2 minutes 9 seconds.

Before the presentation of prizes by Mrs. M. K. Lo, Mr. Lee Sui-huen, chairman of the University Athletic Club, made a short speech in the course of which he mentioned that by economizing in prizes the U.A.C. had managed to save more than $600 this year, and this would be donated to the University Medical Relief Society.

The inter-hostel relay was won by Morrison Hall, and the tug-of-war by Eliot Hall. The 3rd to 6th year women undergraduates won the ladies' tug-of-war from the 1st and 2nd year women undergraduates. Dr. D. K. Samy won the past students' race, and Mr. N. P. Kho won the Staff race.

GOSANO GOES THROUGH CRICKET CLUB

Seven For 16: Recreio Now Well Placed For Title

A. H. MADAR 18 IN 89 MINUTES: KOWLOON HELD TO DRAW

CLEAN-BOWLING FIVE MEN, AND HAVING TWO CAUGHT, Dr. E. L. ("Eddie") Gosano ran through the Hongkong Cricket Club side in the big Recreio-Club match at King's Park on Saturday to give his side a great win by 91 runs and to put them in a very strong position for the senior cricket title.

Recreio themselves, taking first knock, only scored 130 but Gosano, in an inspired spell of nine overs, was virtually unplayable. Club were always scratching, never looked like getting the runs at any time, and were eventually skittled out for 48. Gosano's figures were 9-3-16-7.

At the Kowloon Cricket Club the Fincher brothers put on 96 runs for the third wicket. E. F. getting 51 and E. C. 50, but no one else reached double figures, and Kowloon totalled only 136!

With three wickets down for 62 runs and A. H. Madar, one of their best bats, well set at 51, the Indians looked well placed for a win at that stage, but none of the latter batsmen could get going. Madar made no attempt to force the pace, and the game petered out into a tame draw.

The results of these two matches leaves the League in this position:—Kowloon have 15 1/2 points, having completed all their fixtures; Recreio have 14 1/2 and are due to play the Royal Navy in their final fixture next week. If they win, the Shield is theirs, if they draw there will be a play-off, if they lose Kowloon take the Shield.

Scores of yesterday's two big games follow:—

THE REAL SHIRLEY TEMPLE

—BY HER MOTHER—

Thousands of mothers have written me asking under what "Golden Rules" I am raising Shirley.

It is, perhaps, a spectacular aid to parental authority to draw up and exhibit on the nursery or living-room wall a long and imposing list of "Do's" and "Don'ts."

But does this really help unless careful study is made of the individual child, and generous revision is applied to the rules as the child-character develops?

Before we knew what Shirley was going to do on the screen, I had a general scheme of management. That sounds stern. I mean it to be so.

GOLDEN RULES

Not because I consider myself especially firm, but because I hope and believe it is true that her career has done nothing to rob Shirley of natural child-like characteristics.

Although in the light of what has since happened to Shirley, I have obviously had to contend with influences and situations I could not possibly have foreseen when she was a growing baby. I still find my average mother's methods in every way practical.

I never permit Shirley to take meals with irregularity. I watch and guard against any possible interference with her sleep or lessons, which I insist shall, as far as possible, "go by clockwork."

I am always at pains to study the environment in which Shirley works or plays and take good care that adult conversation, always taxing to the child mind, is limited to an absolute minimum wherever Shirley happens to be.

WORK V. HOME

I realized at a very early stage in Shirley's career that a necessarily close contact with things and with people whose theatrical impulses were necessarily trained to the purpose of "make believe" might have a terrific effect upon the development of her mind.

Whose children would not revel in fantasy? And Hollywood is a little world in which reality and unreality are so close it is hard to distinguish the one from the other.

My most persistent efforts have been directed to the complete separation of Shirley's home life from considerations of career. I believe, in fact, she does not realize that she is having a career: her work has become part of her life.

"A NATURAL TEASE"

At other times she will invite her brother Jack to tease her; he is "a natural tease." Sonny, the other boy, will pretend to take her part, and there's the usual good-natured rumpus. At times it gets out of hand, and that is where mother steps in, usually by discovering that it is Shirley's bedtime.

I always avoid any reference to Shirley as "a star." For instance, when George Murphy was selected for the chief male-role in "Little Miss Broadway," I told her that she was to appear next with Mr. Murphy, and not "Mr. Murphy is to appear with you in your next film."

REACTS READILY

It has always been easy to protect Shirley from influences which might have had a bad effect upon her child mind, but in doing all I could I have tried not to become too serious or profound.

AMUSING MISTAKES

She picks up a new dance routine like lightning, relaying, I believe, upon her ear rather than her eye, to get the right steps. She has no unusual fund of general knowledge however, and often makes amusing mistakes in words just as most other children do.

Not long ago she laughingly objected to a new dance routine her instructor had suggested "because it takes too much 'energition.'" She had mixed up "energy" with "exertion," but she knew what she meant.

MME. C. C. WU "AT HOME"

CAST OF CHARITY PLAY FETED

(BY "ROSETTE")

A delightfully informal "At Home" was given by Madame C.C. Wu, widow of the late Dr. C.C. Wu, one-time Chinese Ambassador to the United States, at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. Ma Wai-man, No. 22 Kennedy Road, on Saturday night. When a representative gathering of members of the local younger set were present at a most successful party.

Guests of honour were the cast of "Debutante Goes to Town," the charity play which made such a tremendous hit at the Queen's Theatre at the beginning of March, and Madame Wu selected this opportunity of congratulating them on their great success and of presenting prizes and souvenirs donated by her daughter, Mrs. Ho Pak-ping, in connection with the performance.

In a patriotic speech, Mr. Kan Yau-man, member of the standing committee of the Chinese Youth's Medical Relief Association, under whose auspices the play was presented, thanked the whole cast on behalf of the club and on behalf of the wounded soldiers for whose benefit the play was staged. It was announced that a net profit of $10,100 had been made.

He also thanked Mr. O'Yang Yu-chen, the director of the play, Miss Daisy O'Keefe, dancing director, and Dr. H. G. Rhodes, of Lingnan University, supervisor.

Round About

People and the situation they create make this world in which we live. Everyone has at least a little share in the daily existence. However, certain nationalities more than others are prone to create the laughs and sadnesses of this present life. And Americans, individually, add much to the amusement of the present generation at home and abroad.

Several days ago a female citizen of U. S. A. disembarked at Kai Tak from an airplane. Timidly she walked with other plane passengers into the airport reception room. Airline officials, baggage coolies, post office clerks and members of the press stood about her.

Quietly she attended to the passport and custom formalities. Her business being completed she turned and surveyed the scene about her in a totally bewildered and forlorn manner. She appeared lost and frightened.

A representative of the press approached this lady, but before he uttered a word, she stepped up to the blond young man and cautiously asked: "Do you speak English?"

Invited by the Chinese Society of the Hongkong University, Mr. Jen Yu-wen, an authority on the studies of the Tai Ping Rebellion, gave his fourth lecture on that subject in the Fung Ping Shan Library, on Friday last. A large audience attended. This lecture is the last of the first series, and, as Mr. Jen will leave the Colony soon, local audiences have to wait until after Easter to have another opportunity of hearing this authority.

GALAXY OF FASHIONS AT ST. PATRICK'S BALL

BY ROZANNE

Silks, satins, brocades, and representatives of all the whole galaxy of materials at women's choice were there to clothe the fairer of the sexes, but gowns of floating chiffon and billowing, crinoline skirted, taffeta dresses were noticeably popular.

Gathers and pleats on the shoulders of Mrs. Landale's chiffon cloak caused it to flow in graceful folds over her gown of the same material, both of which were a lovely Iris blue. Mrs. Lelsching wore grass green chiffon, the high waistband of gold lame kid being inserted and matching the gold band at the hem. Mrs. Gray, in a mauve-indigo chiffon frock, matched the flowers in her hair with a large shoulder spray of shaded pink tulips. Miss Betty Riehard's dress, a model with a tight high-waisted bodice of deep blue velvet from which cascaded folds of shaded blue chiffon and net to form the skirt, looked particularly attractive when she was dancing, as the full effect of the graceful skirt could be seen to advantage. Both Mrs. and Miss Linsell were also in blue, the former in love-in-the-mist chiffon with a coat, and the latter in sky-blue net with a diminutive bolero of royal blue velvet.

RUSTLING TAFFETA

A wide skirt of rustling black taffeta matched the puffed sleeved bolero of Miss Rachael Smith's frock. The bodice, like all real crinolines, being tight fitting and high waisted, and in this case made of white chiffon velvet. Mrs. de Robeck, also in a crinoline style, and with a strapless bodice, chose grey taffeta. Miss Jan King and Miss Pat Dodwell also wore this popular material, Miss King in seagreen and Miss Dodwell in lollipop-pink. The skirt of Miss Quinn's peach taffeta crinoline was less wide and multicoloured velvet.

bows caught it up in gathers giving the whole a quilted effect.

A glorious shoulder spray of gardenias graced Mrs. Abbot's french lace which whispered softly over its matching white slip of taffeta. Miss Simpson, Miss Woolf, and Miss Purves each wore white net. Miss Simpson's bodice being daintily trimmed with bands of silver sequins.

A beautiful set of earrings and necklace set in heavy gold was worn by Mrs. Murray with gown of black velvet, a fit background for such lovely jewels. Mrs. Woolf's sheathlike frock of black was striped throughout with gold thread, and gold kid provided an attractive medium for the leaf pattern on the sleeves of the coat of Miss Osborne's frock of heavy, white, crepe. Silver sequins scattered liberally over Mrs. Dobb's black satin-lace gown twinkled at every move. Silver brocade threads threaded skilfully through Mrs. Yoxall's frock of blue and mauve shot satin produced a surface which caught up all lights and mirrored them in a fascinating manner.

AMERICAN MODEL

Miss Bunty Hallöwas was looking charming in an American model of plum-coloured marocain, the coat of the same shade being trimmed with gold sequins. Mrs. Black's satin gown of a rich chocolate brown had an attractive corsage of mixed flowers in orchid shades. Gleaming silver satin inserted in strips on Miss Wilcox's black chiffon-velvet gown had a lightening effect. The coat of Miss Reeve's lime satin was lightly trimmed with soft matching swansdown.

EUROPEAN COUPLE MARRIED

Miss Frances Winifred Hurst, daughter of Mr. J. Hurst, became the bride of Mr. M. W. McGrath at St. Andrew's Church on Saturday morning, the Rev. J. R. Higgs, Vicar of St. Andrew's officiating. It was decided that the recommendation be proceeded with, a lapse of time of six months being allowed to the date of appointment, by which time, it is expected the capital expenditure will be realised.

FRENCH CONVENT PLAY

Alice In Wonderland Final Performance

This evening at 5.30, in the Theatre of the French Convent School, the Members of the St. Paul Recreation Club will give the final performance of "Alice in Wonderland."

They have already played it four times to packed and enthusiastic houses. The acting and setting of the play are delightful, and the children throw themselves into the whimsical situations of Lewis Carroll's dream-story with a verve that makes the various scenes live.

The performance reflects the greatest credit on the young actors and on all who have devoted themselves to its preparation. It is well worth seeing.

In addition, before the main feature, a short play "The Stepsisters" will be presented.

During the intervals various musical and vocal items will be given, including solos by Miss Elvie Yuen, the well-known soprano, with V. Rev. Fr. Riganti at the piano.

The entire proceeds of the production will be given to the Catholic Truth Society.

NO CASUALTIES IN SHUMCHUN FIRE

Investigations reveal that no refugees fell victim to the fire which gutted the refugee camp at the former premises of the Yau Sung Theatre at Shumchun on Wednesday night. All refugees there, it is learned, were moved to another place nearly half a month ago.

The conflagration, which raged for fully three hours and burned down six houses nearby in addition to the refugee camp, is stated to have been started by a refugee woman burning joss money and incense sticks. She is believed to be mentally unbalanced and is now under the custody of the Shumchun Police.

CRIMINAL SESSIONS OPENS

Several Cases On Saturday

The Criminal Sessions opened on Saturday morning at the Supreme Court when several cases were dealt with by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor.

Ho Pak-yau pleaded guilty to robbing six persons of money and jewellery and was sentenced to five years' hard labour.

Admitting assaulting Kwan Hing-kee at Fanling on January 17 last, but denying having robbed complainant, Lo Fuk-lam was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment.

For unlawful possession of heroin pills and diacetymorphine, Yip Kwan, 20, was sentenced to three years' hard labour. Chin Lam was given four years' hard labour for returning from life banishment.

"I came back because of oppression," he pleaded.

"Your record shows 14 previous convictions. You have been banished nine times. You have received at total of 114 strokes of the birch," the Chief Justice remarked in passing sentence.

H.K. CONTRIBUTION TO DEFENCE

Starting this year, the Colony will pay $6,000,000 per year as its contribution to the upkeep of the Imperial garrison instead of the 20 per cent. of revenue that has previously been paid.

This outcome of the new method of assessment proposed last year and accepted by the Home Government, is set up in legal terms in the Defence Contribution Ordinance, 1939, which entails the repealments of seven other Bills or sections of Bills.

The new contribution will be paid in monthly instalments but certain measures have been taken so that the Colony shall not pay more than the cost of the garrison in any year and, should the dollar fluctuation make this seem possible, a revision of the contribution would be at once undertaken.

In the Objects and Reasons it is stated that the system will be followed for five years as an experiment.

RECLAMATION FOR BUILDING PIER

An Ordinance to authorize an undertaking for reclamation of seabed to abut the Jubilee Street Ferry Pier approaches and Connaught Road to the east of such approaches between Queen Victoria Street and Pottinger Street and for construction of a pier and a temporary pier between the reclamation and Douglas Wharf, is contained in the "Government Gazette."

The reclamation will be approximately 41,650 square feet in area and the pier will be 15,840 square feet.

SILVER INGOTS SEIZED Huge Haul In Harbour

Nearly two tons of silver ingots, valued at around $80,000 were discovered in a raid carried out by Hongkong revenue officers on a Norwegian steamer shortly after she had arrived in harbour from Bangkok.

The steamer was the s.s. Norviken and the silver was found in the course of a search for contraband, carried out by Senior Revenue Officer Ward.

An application for the confiscation of the cargo was made before Mr. T. J. Houston at Central Magistracy on Saturday by Mr. W. M. Thomson, Assistant Superintendent of Imports and Exports, when the case was officially adjourned sine die in the remote possibility of a claimant presenting himself.

ELECTION OF J.P.

Forms of nomination may be obtained at the Magistracy, Hongkong. Every nomination must be delivered to Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, First Police Magistrate, not less than six days before the day fixed for the election.

Only 'unofficial' Justices of the Peace are entitled to vote. Voting will commence at 4 p.m. and continue until 6 p.m. when the ballot-box will be closed.

U.S. CONCERN

COL. HENRY L. STIMSON, formerly U.S. Secretary of State, has written an exceptionally interesting letter to the "New York Times" on what he considers should be the policy of the American Government in the event of aggression by the Fascist Powers against Great Britain and France. Col. Stimson, who was formerly second-in-command to President Hoover, is noted for his determined stand against unprovoked aggression and for his refusal to recognize the puppet state of "Manchoukuo." From 1928 to 1929, he served as Governor-General of the Philippines and, as such, obtained a clear insight of conditions in the Far East, especially of Japan's designs on her great Republican neighbour.

ENVISAGING the combination of Germany, Italy and Japan in such aggression, Col. Stimson writes, "Almost any moment an armed attack may be aimed by Fascist Powers against Britain or France. Such an attack, from present appearances, would be co-operated in by all three Fascist powers. The defence against such joint action in Europe and Asia can only be securely accomplished by common action of the naval power of the three large Democracies, including the United States."

COL. STIMSON makes the point that, if any one of the three Democracies remains isolated in the event of an attack upon the others, there would be grave chances of disaster befalling them, and that, therefore, it is only by co-operation that the Democracies can hope to survive. On the other hand, the conviction on the part of the Fascist powers that such common action is contemplated would and must be potent to prevent an attack altogether. "Would our position be bettered by idly waiting? To-day the German mailed fist has far less velvet, concealing it than in the years preceding 1914," concludes Col. Stimson.

THESE VIEWS are supported by the journal publishing the letter which shows that such a policy would not require alliances for the United States abroad, but consultation with other law-abiding countries on tactics of self-defence.

THERE CANNOT BE the slightest doubt that the mobilization of the resources of these powers for the preservation of peace would be the most formidable organization that could possibly be devised. It is not necessary that the United States should be asked to enter into any offensive or defensive alliance. Indeed, sentiment in America would be definitely against any such proposal, but, when the world at large learns that aggression against the Democracies will in the future be very much America's business, a potent factor for peace will have been called into being. No country in the world would embark on war without some real hope of emerging victorious.

AGAINST such a combination, the Fascist states would have very little chance indeed, for not only would the combined military and naval strength practically ensure victory in the field and on the seas, but the enormous economic pressure that the Democracies would be able to

COLONIAL LEGAL SERVICE

The draft of an ordinance to amend the law relating to the professional qualifications required in the case of judges of the Supreme Court states that the establishment of a Colonial Legal Service, the members of which are liable to transfer from one Colony to another makes it important that the provisions of the law on this question should be uniform throughout the Colonial Empire.

As far as Hongkong is concerned, it is not considered desirable to regulate the qualifications of Judges of His Majesty's Supreme Court in China as their qualifications are regulated in an article of the China Order in Council (1923) which requires them to be members of the Bar in England, Scotland or Northern Ireland of not less than seven years standing.

STOLE SEWING MACHINE

Wong Kwan, 20, Chu Tong, 28, Wong Chi-wan, 17, and Ma Chung, 19, were charged before Mr. R. Edwards at Central Magistracy on Saturday with stealing a sewing machine from No. 1 Island Road, the property of Mr. Peter Lippin, teacher of the Salesian Mission. Two women, charged with receiving the machine, were discharged.

Inspector Russell said the women bought the machine for $20, but it was worth several hundred dollars.

First and the fourth defendants, who had previous convictions, were sentenced to six months' hard labour, and second and third, to four months.

extert would prove just as formidable. That will, however, necessitate some positive action on the part of the United States. It cannot be expected that Washington will make a definite statement as to her attitude in the event of a European war breaking out, for it has always been reluctant to make such commitments, but the knowledge that it cannot regard the threat to European Democracies with unconcern may still prove to be the important factor towards the maintenance of peace and the removal of much of the present tension.

INTERNATIONAL
CAROLINE HILL"Sunday Herald" Cup
Record Gate

A record gate of $3,041 was taken at Caroline Hill yesterday afternoon when 5,164 spectators witnessed China defeat England by four goals to one in the semi-final of the "Sunday Herald" International Charity Cup football competition. China will meet Portugal in the final on Easter Monday.

Changes were made in both teams Tsang Chung-wan playing instead of Soong Ling-sing at right half-back for China and Wong King-chung in place of Hau Ching-to on the left wing while in the England side Hartley appeared between the sticks and Rides at right back. Instead of Corbin.

Hartley had the misfortune to damage his left hand when saving a hard shot from Lee Wal-tong in the first half but he pluckily continued with his hand bandaged. The game itself was fast in the first half but the second half saw play that was almost farcical, the Chinese forwards not exerting themselves to any extent. The best football was seen in the opening stages when England obtained an early lead through Emberson. Thereafter, the Chinese forwards played splendidly and the English goal underwent very heavy pressure Fung Lee and Lal Shiu-wing eventually netting a goal each in that order. In the second half, Lee added a fourth goal with an easy ground shot.

Parker, Bright, Moss and Strange played well for the losers while Lee Tin-sang and Leung Wing-chiu acquitted themselves well in the Chinese side. For a brief period in the first half Leung actually played centre-forward Lee Wal-tong dropping back to the pivotal berth.

Mr. R. M. Omar refereed and the teams were as follows:—

CHINA: Tam Kwan-kon; Hou Yung-sang, Lee Tin-sang; Tsang Chung-wan, Leung Wing-chiu, Hau King-sing, Tang Kwong-sun, Fung King-cheong, Lee Wal-tong, Lal Shiu-wing and Wong King-chung.

ENGLAND: Hartley; Rides, Parker, Freshwater, Bright, Wilkinson, Emberson, Moss, Chesters, E. Strange and Duffield.

Hello &amp; Goodbye

By A. W. HYER

The Central European political situation has all Hongkong talking and arguing. And over the week-end, after a quick recuperation from St. Patrick's evening, the Dog Show, where our mutts cavorted in a successful display, had everyone looking.

Therefore, between the two excitements, several passenger transports slipping in and out of the port with interesting human cargo that did not receive a great deal of notice.

President Pierce

SATURDAY AFTERNOON-5.30 the President Pierce came down the harbour with a cold wind from Shanghai. Few people were scattered on the pier, indoor temperatures were more inviting.

Captain C. Jokstad, the "sit-down" ping-pong champion brought many interesting visitors to our shores. Approximately one hundred Chinese youngsters gathered at the pier barrier singing songs of greeting to Dr. Mary Stone and Miss Jennie Hughes. When the gangway was lowered they surged aboard with flowers and gifts for these two well-liked missionaries. Fathers, mothers, children and new-born infants were all there creating much gay excitement in their welcome.

Dr. Stone and Miss Hughes have been in America for the past two years on leave. How, they return to carry on with their good work in the Bethel Mission in Kowloon. The large delegation meeting these two women was indeed a demonstration of the esteem and affection with which they are regarded.

Smiling and happy were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Harper with their two children Miss Phyllis C. Harper and Master Robert E. Harper as they waved from the ship's deck-rail. The Managing Director of Wallace Harper & Co., Ltd., and his family evidently had a splendid vacation and are back in the Colony set for another year or so of hard industry.

A business call to Hongkong brought Mr. Le Roy Bauer down from Tokyo. This gentleman looks after the affairs of Universal Pictures in the Japanese city. Maybe he can assist in arrangements for newer motion pictures, a general complaint in this part of the world.

Two very interesting business executives from America travelling out to the Far East on an investigating business trip are Mr. T. C. Wiehe, President of Schenley International Corporation and Mr. E. Lindner, Sales Director of the Far East for the same company. Both of these gentlemen are on their way to Manila. Business is very good, they report. Ah! the quality.

Though Mr. E. G. Price took to his heels and in the rush we did not catch even a look at him, reports say he travelled from Yokohama, where he was connected with Butterfield and Swire, to the Colony, on transfer. A new resident.

Manila Bound

THREE O'CLOCK in the morning have a heart dear public, we were not dancing until that hour but home a-bed when the President Pierce sailed for Manila.

Mr. O. G. Steen, Vice-president of American President Lines and Charge of the Orient has been keeping the local personnel way up on their toes during his two weeks visit. Now, he sailed to Manila for a call and inspection.

This busy executive has great hopes for his new company and is hard at work in establishing a new reputation and quota for the line.

Mr. V. Madrigal and his two daughters sailed back home to Manila after a short pleasure call in the Colony. Included in the party was Mr. C. Bunje, of Manila. This large family are getting to be constant callers in our port and have many friends here.

Another visitor returning home was Mrs. E. Strange. Her days here have been pleasant as always.

M. V. Victoria

SATURDAY 8.30 a.m. this prize vessel of the Lloyd Triestino fleet called in our port. Lining the deck rails were over 200 Jewish refugees on their way to Shanghai. Approximately 5,000 refugees are now in the Northern city, and still their numbers grow as each steamer arrives from Europe.

Mr. Chester Fritz, a partner in the firm of Swan, Cubertson and Fritz came up from a short visit in Manila, to spend sometime in the local office. This gentleman of stock and bonds has been on a tour of his Far Eastern branches and will shortly return to his desk in New York.

The whole family and relations were along when Mr. and Mrs. J. Bayot arrived in port. Three daughters and a son have come holidaying from Manila. All of them are connected with Bayot Bros. well known photographers in the Southern city. Ten days, maybe more, they will visit then return home.

Shanghai Bound

SATURDAY, four hours after her arrival—1 p.m. the Victoria was on her way to Shanghai.

A frequent and charming visitor in the Colony is the smart appearing Mrs. K. Haas of Shanghai. Back home she sailed on the Victoria after a four day business call. Mr. Haas equally well known commuter to Hongkong and number one of Comptoir, "Angle-Com-Union" has been in New York since November, on his return in April he will be met by Mrs. Haas in Japan. The month of May will find them visiting our city again, and this is a pleasure many residents look forward to.

Mrs. M. Winternitz went sailing to Shanghai on a short visit to friends. Along, she leaves her husband the number one in the Gloucester Hotel's music department.

S. S. Rawalpindi

SAILING FOR home and southern ports was the P. & O. steamer,
Saturday noon.

Mr. W. A. Fairburn's one day visit in the Colony was all too short. From the President Garfield, he sailed on the Rawalpindi to Singapore. And evidently he did not enjoy his Pacific crossing. He will return to America via Europe.

Down to Singapore went Mr. W. A. Ferguson of Marcel Cafe. Business and pleasure take him out of the Colony for some weeks.

The young members of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hegerty's family are certainly going to make a trip of their voyage to Singapore. In and out and about they tore with gay laughter through the steamer these vivacious children of the executive of China Electrical Co.

Professor L. T. Ride, of the Hongkong University, was booked for a trip to Singapore. However, we did not have the pleasure of catching his attention, before sailing time.

Sea Dragon

THROUGH the courtesy of the President Pierce's Radio Department we report on Captain Welch and Richard Halliburton's junk expedition on their way to the San Francisco Exposition in that port.

March 17, Friday, this steamer contacted the Sea Dragon. Radio-man Patrick aboard the junk reported all was well, they are 1,650 miles from Hongkong and sailing for Midway Island in the Pacific. Greetings are extended to all friends and enemies.

U.S. COUNTER TO GERMANY

WASHINGTON, March 19 (Reuter)—The U.S. Treasury announced the imposition of countervailing duties on dutiable German imports, thereby offsetting the effect of export subsidies.

The decision involves a 25 per cent addition to the existing duties on a substantial part of the total imports from Germany. A Treasury official when questioned on the subject refused to state whether this is in consequence of the seizure of Czechoslovakia and added that "the action speaks for itself."

"Wanton Shattering" Of Appeasement

COMMENTS ON PREMIER'S HISTORIC SPEECH

LONDON, Mar. 18 (Reuter)—There are three marked features in the reception given Mr. Neville Chamberlain's historic utterances at Birmingham on Friday night by the highly stirred British press.

Firstly, there is general satisfaction that the Prime Minister did not mince his words over the "wanton shattering" of the prospects of appeasement by Hitler.

Secondly, there is, undisputed, hope that Mr. Chamberlain's words will be followed by deeds which will make Germany hesitate in future.

Thirdly, the press accepts the Prime Minister's assurance that he had been badly "let down" by Hitler and consequently could not be blamed for events.

In the last connection it is notable that the Labour "Daily Herald," which demands that Mr. Chamberlain should now resign, features like all the other journals Hitler's "broken pledges" in headlines above the report of Mr. Chamberlain's speech.

WANTON INVASION
The "Times" comments that Mr. Chamberlain showed how fully he shared the indignation as well as disappointment of his countrymen at the shattering of international confidence caused by the wanton German invasion of Czechoslovakia.

IDEAL MOMENT
The passage in Mr. Chamberlain's speech in which he referred to the intention to consult with other Democratic Powers attracts the greatest interest of the Press.

ULTIMATUM AND ITS REJECTION

WHAT GERMANY DEMANDED

Monopoly Over All Rumanian Exports

LONDON, Mar. 18 (Reuter)—The diplomatic correspondents of "The Times" and "Daily Telegraph" give circumstantial reports of a German "economic ultimatum" to Rumania. It is stated that Herr Wohltat, head of the German economic mission to Rumania, presented a demand in the name of his Government that

SOVIET CIRCLES RETICENT

GERMANY MOST DANGEROUS ENEMY

MOSCOW, Mar. 19 (Reuter)—Reticence was observed in Soviet circles last night regarding possible Soviet action in the face of reported German pressure on Rumania pending official information on the subject.

The silence, however, does not mean that the Soviet authorities are not gravely concerned at any action which might bring Germany, considered the Soviet's most dangerous enemy, close to its borders.

It is believed in informed circles that the Soviet cannot but wield a strong hand if Rumania's integrity is threatened, particularly as Soviet interests in Ukraine might thereby be vitally affected.

This strong hand might be felt as in the case of China, with which the Soviet has established friendly relations and lent material aid after the Japanese invasions.

In the light of Stalin's statement before the Congress of the Communist Party on Mar. 10 that Germany's future expansionist acts would be directed against the west, Germany's latest move would appear, at first sight, to have taken the Soviet by surprise, but it must be remembered that after the Munich Conference the occupation of Czechoslovakia was considered a foregone conclusion.

It may be important to recall another passage in Stalin's speech: "We stand for rendering support to nations which are victims of aggression and which are fighting for the independence of their country."

Firstly, Rumania should by degrees cease all efforts to build up the country as an industrial power and limit herself to agriculture, and

Secondly, that Germany be granted a complete monopoly over all Rumanian exportable products, including oil, grain, lumber, cattle and foodstuffs.

AND IN RETURN
In return, Germany would guarantee Rumania's territorial integrity and the independence of her people.

The demand is reported to have been completely rejected, and the result has been that all Rumanian political parties have sunk their differences and have joined a common front.

Reuter learns in well-informed circles in London that the report that Germany has submitted far-reaching economic demands to Rumania, is correct.

Germany demanded a complete monopoly over all Rumanian exports and that Rumania completely revert to the state of an agricultural country.

REJECTION OF DEMANDS
The demands, which were delivered by Herr Wohltat, were immediately rejected.

Emphasizing the gravity of the situation, a Crown Council presided over by King Carol, was promptly summoned last evening, and was attended by the Rumanian army chiefs.

Reuter is informed that the Council noted with satisfaction that diplomatic and military steps taken and contemplated, were considered adequate to protect Rumanian integrity.

After a three-day stay in the Colony, the 79-year-old Rev. Sir Montagu Beauchamp, one of the famous "Cambridge Seven," left in the ss. Corfu on Friday on his fourth journey into the interior of China, via Shanghai, to visit his son, Dr. Ivor C. Beauchamp who is in charge of the Pao Ning Hospital in Szechuan.

GREETINGS EXCHANGED

BUT THE BATTLE GOES ON

ROME, Mar. 19 (Reuter)—Count Teleki has telegraphed to Signor Mussolini on the occasion of "Hungarian troops reaching, for the first time, the secular frontier of Hungary" and expressing his gratitude that the Duce "was the first among European statesmen to recognise the just cause of this country."

Mr. Duce replied: "The Italian people share the satisfaction of the Hungarian nation in this historic moment."

M. Csanik and Count Ciano also exchanged telegrams, both expressing the conviction that "the new situation thus created for Hungary will strongly contribute to consolidating peace in Europe."

British Missionary Killed

CHUNGKING, Mar. 19 (Reuter)—It is confirmed that the Rev. A. G. Leigh, aged 35 years, of the English Methodist Missionary Society was killed during the Japanese bombing of Peking on Mar. 15.

Mr. Leigh, accompanied by the Rev. Clark, his cook and seven members of the cook's family took refuge in a dugout near the Pajien School.

A bomb fell directly on the dugout, instantly killing Mr. Leigh, the cook and the cook's entire family. Mr. Clark was slightly injured but managed to dig himself out of the debris.

Mrs. Leigh and her four-year-old daughter are at present in London. Mr. Leigh first came to China in 1931. He went to England in 1937 and returned in January this year.

DEATH OF SIR HENRY LUNN

League Of Nations Union Official

LONDON, Mar. 19 (Reuter)—The death has occurred of Sir Henry Simpson Lunn, Kt., M.D., J.P., Vice-President of the League of Nations Union and Honorary President of the Anglo-Hellenic League, Athens, in his 80th year. He was educated at Horaceast Grammar School and Dublin University.

Sir Henry, who was knighted in 1910, was British Chairman of the World Conference of Faith and Order in Lausanne in 1927 and lectured on the American Constitutional Convention of 1787 to the annual meeting for 1928 of the George Washington Sulgrave Institution, New York, proceeding through Canada, New Zealand and Australia on a world tour in support of the League of Nations.

His publications include A Friend of Missions in India, Municipal Studies and International Friendship, Round the World with a Dictaphone, The Secret of the Saints, and Nearing Harbour.

SETTLEMENT OF OIL DISPUTE

Plan Announced By Cardenas

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 19 (Reuter)—President Cardenas announced a plan for settlement of the oil dispute which, he said, was based on a proposal by Mr. Richberg.

President Cardenas said that the plan provided for co-operation between the Mexican Government and the companies, the latter contributing the amount of indemnity claimed and any new capital invested.

When the valuation of the properties seized had been completed the percentages of profits to be distributed would be worked out.

President Cardenas declared that the co-operation plan and the fixing of percentages would be settled by experts "once the companies accept the principles proposed by the Mexican Government."

It is reliably learned that the expropriated interests will join issue with the President's statement, insisting the settlements would only be possible if the companies retain the entire management.

"THE LIBERTY WE HAVE ENJOYED... WE WILL NEVER SURRENDER"

LONDON, March 18 (Reuter)—Wild cheers and applause greeted the final passages of Mr. Neville Chamberlain's speech at Birmingham in which he declared: "There is hardly anything I would not sacrifice for peace, but there is one thing I must except, that is, the liberty we have enjoyed for hundreds of years and which we will never surrender."

"While I am not prepared to engage this country in new commitments yet, no greater mistake could be made than to suppose that this nation will not take part to the utmost of its power in resisting a challenge, if it is ever made, and in that declaration, I am convinced, that I have not merely the support, sympathy and confidence of my countrymen and countrywomen, but the approval of the whole British Empire and all other nations who value peace, indeed, but value freedom even more."

In beginning his speech Mr. Chamberlain said: "The tremendous events which have been taking place in Europe have thrown everything else into the background and I feel that what you and those who are listening want to hear is some indication of the views of His Majesty's Government as to the nature and implications of those events."

GUNS HEARD IN SHANGHAI

CHUNGKING, Mar. 18 (Central)—Chinese guerrillas on the outskirts of Shanghai caused two sleepless nights to the Japanese garrison there on Mar. 16 and 17, when intermittent gun and rifle reports were heard in the city from the outlying western districts, according to a report from Shanghai.

Yesterday afternoon, several Japanese planes were seen proceeding from Nantao in a northwesterly direction, apparently for the purpose of surveying guerrilla positions.

copy of the local hotel. He later motored round the district inspecting the new factories.

CANCELLED:

SHOCK FOR PUBLIC OPINION
"One thing is certain, public opinion throughout the world has received a sharper shock than has ever yet been administered to it even by the present regime in Germany. But what may be the effects of this profound disturbance in men's minds cannot yet be foretold, but I am sure that they will be far-reaching in their results upon the future."

Mr. Chamberlain added that owing to lack of information last Wednesday, he was "obliged to confine myself to an over-restrained and cautious exposition on what, at the time, I felt I could make but the little commentary and, perhaps, naturally, that somewhat cool objective statement gave rise to misapprehension."

GERMANY WILL REGRET IT
LONDON, Mar. 18 (Reuter)—After a vote of confidence had been passed for Mr. Chamberlain at the conclusion of his speech at Birmingham, the Premier re-spoke and said: "We need not be downhearted. This is a great and powerful nation, more powerful than six months ago, and acts of violence and injustice will bring their own reward sooner or later."

"Everyone of these incursions raises fresh dangers for Germany in the future and I venture to prophesy that, in the end, she will bitterly regret what her Government has done."

Discovery Bay, with Mr. S. L. Yuen up, went ahead for a long time, and it looked as though it would safely win, but it tired out prematurely, and the rest of the field took advantage and pushed up.

NO SIGNS OF PANIC

London Markets & Latest Crisis

LONDON, Mar. 18 (Reuter).—The possibility of further aggravation of the Central European situation, which the markets read into confirmation of the news that Rumania has been presented with sweeping demands by Germany, is widely discussed in City circles.

There are, however, no signs of panic, as the markets took heart from Mr. Chamberlain's speech last night which confirms the impression that the Government, while adopting a stronger attitude, will carefully avoid involving Britain in war unless British interests are directly and vitally involved.

Rubber was the sole commodity to suffer appreciable loss, and this was chiefly the result of lower Eastern and American prices and uncovering at stop-loss prices.

Values consequently dipped below Eastern parity but a slightly steadier undertone developed towards the close.

STEADY UNDERTONE

A steady undertone obtained in the metal market, where some Continental trading demand sufficed to absorb a few sales by speculators wishing to even up their books over the week-end.

The opinion is held that the latest developments will possibly lead to further intensification of armaments, with a corresponding increase in consumption of base metals.

Other London markets were lifeless as operators were bewildered by the latest news and preferred to hold their hand.

A similar attitude was adopted by foreign exchange operators who were not called upon to cope with an unusually large stream of capital to the Continent.

HOARDING DEMAND

There was a recrudescence of Continental hoarding demand for gold.

In Liverpool, wheat opened firm and reacted when further Plate selling became in evidence, but the decline was promptly arrested by the Rumanian news, which attracted outside bear-covering.

Trading late in the session was brisk.

SHARE MARKET REVIEW

BY C. A. L. RICKETT
Secretary, Hongkong Share-
brokers' Association

The week opened with a feeling of optimism and with every prospect that the improved market of the previous week would continue. Later, however, when events in Europe once again commenced to move a feeling of uncertainty was apparent. There was no undue nervousness but prices were inclined to ease through lack of support. Attempts to take advantage of the market uncertainty were evident but not altogether successful as holders, for the most part, displayed no inclination to part with shares.

HK Banks, in sympathy with London prices, eased from $1,420 to $1,390 and later shares could be obtained at $1,380. HK Docks came in for considerable attention and after advancing from $18 to $19.35 changed hands at $19. Trains remained steady at $17 with buyers at $16.90. Watsons after touching $9.10 closed with sales reported at $9.

Dairy Farms had sellers at $26 with sales reported at $25.4. Hotels after deduction of 60 cents dividend could be obtained at $84. Star Ferries had buyers at $87 and sales at $87.4. Providents (o) came in for enquiry at $5.90 with sales at $6. China Lights (o) were offering at $8.75 with buyers at $8.55. Business was reported in Electrics at $56.4 and Lands at $36.4.

Manila has also shared in the week's wide market uncertainty although there is very little change in price levels since those recorded for the previous week. United Paracale came in for most attention and after advancing from 71 to 79 cts closed at 75 cts.

The Central Bank of China will open branch offices at Meng-tze and Shikwan in Yunnan. Establishment of a branch in Burma is also under consideration.

A conference of bank managers was held in Hongkong recently in order to discuss the means and ways to prevent the breaking up of China's economic structure and depreciation of Chinese currency in the areas under Japanese control. Dr. H. H. Kung, Minister of Finance, appealed to those present to take all steps to strengthen China's economic position, to raise the value of Chinese currency and to adjust commodity prices to the present needs.

NO AGREEMENT YET IN OIL TALKS

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 18 (Reuter).—Neither party has committed itself to agreement with the views expressed by the other," declared Mr. Donald Richberg in a statement issued yesterday.

PRECAUTIONS BY FRANCE

Fortifications in Indo-China

LUNGCHOW, Mar. 18 (Int'l) — Indicating that work on the construction of fortifications at the Bay of Camranh is in progress, French Indo-China authorities have promulgated regulations prohibiting the entry of all vessels with the exception of French warships.

Anticipating immediate danger to its colonies in the event of a conflict involving this country with members of the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo axis, France is taking extraordinary rearmament measures, particularly in Indo-China, where the number of troops has been increased by 50,000, bringing the total military force up to 100,000, since the occupation of Hainan Island by the Japanese.

The Government has ordered from the United States between 35 and 50 pursuit planes, which are due for delivery shortly. Fifteen will be shipped to Djibouti, French Somaliland, while the others are destined for Indo-China, it is learned. Anti-aircraft forces at Djibouti were strengthened by the arrival of 175 Senegalese and 50 marines, according to a Paris report.

The French Minister of Colonies, Mr. Georges Mandel, has ordered the construction at Hanoi of an aircraft factory capable of producing annually 150 planes and 400 motors. Construction is believed to have begun in March.

REWARD FOR BRAVERY OF PILOT

Mr. J. W. Hurst Receives D.S.C.

As a reward for his bravery in effecting the rescue of the ship's company of the China Navigation Company's river vessel, s.s. Tuckwo during the Japanese bombing attack on Wuhu in December 1937, Mr. J. W. Hurst, Admiralty Pilot, was presented with the Distinguished Service Cross, awarded to him by His Majesty the King, aboard H.M.S. Scorpion, flagship of the Royal Navy's Yangtze Squadron, in Shanghai.

The presentation was made by Rear-Admiral R. V. Holt, Rear-Admiral Yangtze, in the presence of a distinguished company, which included Sir Herbert Phillips, H. M. Consul-General.

MR. HURST'S ACTION

Before making the presentation Rear-Admiral Holt stated: On the morning of December 5, 1937, during the bombing of British shipping at Wuhu by Japanese aircraft, Mr. Hurst took control of the tug Chenyang, displaying remarkable powers of command over a panic-stricken native crew. By his seamanship and fearless handling of the tug he made possible the rescue of the ship's company of the s.s. Tuckwo from a difficult and dangerous situation.

The Tuckwo had just arrived from Hankow for the purpose of removing British floating property from the vicinity of possible military objectives and was on the point of going alongside Messrs. Jardine Matheson's hulk Madras II with this intention, when the bombing commenced.

For his services on this occasion His Majesty the King has awarded him the Distinguished Service Cross which I now have much pleasure in presenting to him.

PILOT'S TRIBUTE

On behalf of the Woosung-Hankow Pilots' Association, Capt. H. J. West stated that Mr. Hurst was one of their youngest members when they "handed him over" to the Navy. They were sorry to lose him but were proud to think that he had filled the position with credit. The company then drank the health of Mr. Hurst, who replied briefly, thanking Rear-Admiral Holt for the honour bestowed upon him.

DUKE OF WINDSOR WRITES TO TYNESIDE

The Duke of Windsor has written to Sir John Jarvis at Jarrow saying he hopes that conditions there are improving.

This was revealed by Sir John after the King and Queen had left Jarrow at the conclusion of their north-eastern tour.

"Only last week I had a letter from the Duke of Windsor in Paris wishing me good luck and expressing the hope that conditions are improving for the people of the town," he said.

"That is typical of every member of the Royal Family."

Sir John added the orders booked for his Gateshead and Jarrow works exceed £1,000,000, and ensure work for a year ahead.

The King and Queen, he said.

THE WAR JAPAN CANNOT WIN: A LESSON TO ALL AGGRESSORS

"The Japanese war with China will be a long-drawn-out affair with, I should say, a minimum of another three years," said Mr. George W. Shepherd, adviser to General Chiang Kai-shek and his wife, on welfare and reconstruction work in China. He said that in February, 1938.

Talking to press representatives in London, on March 6 Mr. Shepherd, who is on his way on furlough to the United States, expressed his opinion that at the end of three years Japan would be ready to discuss peace with the China she can never conquer.

Mr. Shepherd gave three reasons for the present lull in military affairs in China. First, the terrific losses in military equipment, money, and men which the Japanese suffered in taking Hankow. They had hoped that when the province was captured the Chinese would sue for peace. They said in the clubs, "You will be surprised at the Chinese who will work for us when we have taken Hankow."

JAPAN'S WATERLOO?

"And not one capable, prominent Chinese had joined Japan," said Mr. Shepherd. "It may be Japan's Waterloo. During the past two months the Chinese have killed some thirty members of the puppet Governments."

Mr. Shepherd pointed out that from the beginning of the war the Japanese had made the mistake of thinking they were attacking the old China, not believing that China was under reconstruction. During the next three years of struggle both sides would suffer severely.

Japan held certain important places, but they were like hillocks entirely surrounded by antagonistic Chinese, and outside those places there was no trade and no form of government. Two and a half million men divided into guerrilla armies were operating everywhere in China, and that meant tremendous suffering for everyone concerned.

A GOOD WARNING

"I think most people here and in the United States underestimate the military importance of Japan, but modern equipment, well-supplied armies and determination will never win this war. It will be a very good warning for people of aggressive intentions to study. Poor old China is suffering as an object lesson to dictators everywhere and to the modern world that modern weapons cannot conquer the spirit of a people."

Mr. Shepherd wants those who are anxious to help China to send her drugs. She cannot herself produce them and is entirely dependent on foreign drugs. There will be a tremendous need for them during the next three years of bloodshed.

AIR RAIDS

A man who has experienced many air raids in China he said that raids would never break the moral of the people. His point was that though the Japanese, bombing an open town, could destroy from a third to half of the buildings in they were both delighted to learn that his works at Gateshead are this week beginning a contract worth over £250,000 for the Rolls-Royce company and that £100,000 is being spent on machine tools and other equipment.

WORLD ASSISTANCE TO CHINA ASKED

CHUNGKING, Mar. 18 (Central)—Japan's war of aggression in China is condemned and world assistance to China solicited in a resolution passed by the West China Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held recently in Cheungta, capital of Szechwan province. Resident Bishop Ralph A. Ward presided at the Conference and many prominent church members, including guest pastors S.K. Mondol of Assam, India, and On-Kin of Rangoon, Burma, were in attendance.

"Until the day when Jesus and his Kingdom shall be made manifest throughout the world," the resolution says, "do we appeal to our brethren abroad for their understanding and undergirding sympathy and assistance, their prayers, and as God makes possible, their material help."

"Against her own will, against her own nature, and unprepared in any military sense," it adds, "China has been compelled to resort to the force of arms to resist a brutal ruthless invasion by a neighbour military power."

The resolution then points out that the almost two years of war have seen thousands of Chinese cities and towns and villages systematically destroyed, millions of civilians maimed and killed, other millions driven from their homes, thousands of women brutally abused, educational and

CLUB DE RECREIO VIN SOFTBALL SHIELD

Chinese Baseball Club Lose In Splendid Match

Club de Recreio yesterday gained the distinction of being the first team to have their name inscribed on the Kwok Ying-Shield when they narrowly beat the Chinese Baseball Club by three runs to one in the play-off for the Men's Softball League championship.

Without a doubt it was one of the best games of the season. Hits were evenly distributed, both sides garnering four apiece.

Eddie Gosano again won the game for the Portuguese boys when he hit a two-bagger in the first innings to bring in two tallies; Mike Mendonca completed their tally when he clouted a homer. In the field, A. V. Gosano and "Spotty" Pereira were brilliant and Johnny Alvares, doing mound duty, turned in a good performance.

For the losers Tommy Chan pitched a good game and received every support from his fielders who from the first time this season played without committing an error. Wally Ching, playing at short stop, gave a grand display and Pau Ka-ping, the Interport goal-keeper, making his debut for the Baseballers at the "hot corner" gave a creditable display.

INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Two games in the international series were also played. In the first encounter Philippine Islands beat Great Britain by 7 tallies to four. Paulino and Gosuleo shone for the Filipinos and the brilliant defensive work did much to hold the losers to their comparatively small score. The losers were best served by Gillespie and Stewart of the R. A. F. who were very safe in the outfield.

In the other game, India gained the verdict against Portugal "B" by three runs to one. Nazarin and Kitchell played good ball and M. el Arcuili, at first base, was also outstanding. Ozorio, F. Barros and C. and Silva-Netto were the only ones to come off for the losers.

Results of other matches played are as follows:—

LADIES' LEAGUE

Canadian Chinese 14; Philippines 10

Wildcats 25; Baby Panthers 13

INTER-HONG LEAGUE

Texas 21; R. A. F. 12

Sooty 15; National C. B. 8

Netherlands Bank 33; American Express 3

MARCHING BOOTS

ON—SO WHO CARES?

BERLIN, Mar. 18 (Reuter)—The Nazi press makes light of all foreign criticisms of German policy, or makes it the basis of attack.

"Of what concern are these comments," writes one paper, "to him who has his marching boots on?"

GRIM PICTURE

In Rumanian circles it is considered that even if Germany is preparing to attack Rumania, this operation could not be undertaken within ten days.

The attitude of Hungary, and more particularly Italy, to the recent events and the possibility of new action by Germany is still obscure.

MUSSOLINI ADVISED

The "Observer's" diplomatic correspondent makes the interesting assertion that Herr Hitler advised Signor Mussolini not to make any territorial claims from France at present, but to make such claims for concessions in Tunisia, short of sovereign rights, as to enable him later to copy the technique employed by Herr Hitler in Sudetenland.

NO RECOGNITION

MOSCOW, Mar. 19 (Reuter)—M. Litvinoff has informed Germany that the Soviet has refused to recognize the annexation of Czechoslovakia.

CALCUTTA CUP RUGGER MATCH

England Win By Nine To Six

LONDON, Mar. 18 (Reuter)—

England beat Scotland by 9 points to 6 in the Calcutta Cup Rugger match at Murrayfield to-day.

The teams were tied at 6 points all at half time. Both sides were unchanged except that Murdoch (Hillhead High School) replaced K. C. Fyfe in the Scottish side.

Fyfe is ill.

Scotland began with a rush but England settled down, the three-quarters handling confidently.

Scotland was getting the ball from the line-outs, but England was better in the scrums and the forwards excelled in the loose.

Murdoch scored a grand try in the 13th minute.

Six minutes later, Shaw went over to give Scotland a 6-0 lead.

Heaton scored a penalty goal from 35 yards, and equalised with a further penalty goal just before the interval.

After the interval England scored an unconverted try.

ENGLAND: E. J. Parsons (Royal Air Force); R. H. Guest (Liverpool University and Waterloo); J. Heaton (Waterloo); G. E. Hancock (Birkenhead Park); and R. S. L. Carr (Old Cranleighans and Manchester); T. A. Kemp (St. Mary's Hospital) and J. Ellis (Wakefield); R. E. Prescott (Harlequins); H. B. Toft (Waterloo) (captain); D. E. Teden (Richmond); T. F.
